ART & FOOD PASAR MALAM SATURDAY NIGHT MARKET EVENT

Dear Participant,

First of all thank you for your support to make our weekly Saturday Art and Food Pasar Malam (Night market) to such a success. We will start the Saturday Night Market on 13th November 2021.

Samadi Saturday Art and Food Pasar Malam (Night market) is about supporting local trade, artisan (handmade), organic and sustainable products, promote health and inspire others to use organic and eco-friendly products. We thought that this is a good moment to remind you that everything you bring to the market is according to our guidelines. We believe that now we need to bring change that is needed on this planet.

Samadi will provide light and and electricity, but you can bring extra light, use “warm white” bulbs and bring extra electra kabels and a fire extinguisher.

Here are the guidelines that you should follow :

1. The product are originally produce by the vendor and not resell.
2. The product should use local organic products and sustainable production.
3. The product (food & beverage) should be vegetarian or vegan (meats are not allowed). Only fish-based food allowed.
- 4. No plastic bags and no plastic packaging or plastic straws.
5. The vendor is legal person, and takes full responsibility to represent the supplier, we can't offer a stall to expats without KITAS and Work Permit (IMTA).

6. Once we have confirm with your form, please register and pay the monthly fee to make a commitment to come every Saturday in a month. The first payment need to be done at Samadi Reception before we start the market.
7. The vendor should be present and set up their shops start from 14:00 PM and ready to sell by 14:30 PM until 22:00 PM (Bali Time/WITA)
- 8. The vendors should produce their products on the spot and should be fresh-made (food & beverage). Please send short video of your product.
9. All vendors are asked to help spread the word about the market, invite friends, post on Facebook, Email, hang poster/flyers, Tags groups or whichever way it can be done to support each other and promote the mission of this market, to support local business and to inspire those around them, to buy locally, to bring community together.
10. We ask all vendors to coordinate with us by keeping the cleanliness in our area, and take your waste and put it in the trash bin that Samadi prepared for the event. Always follow the health protocol. Also please contact Pasar Malam's coordinator or Receptionist for any further information.
11. Any other items or belongings used, may not be left behind after the market closed, we are not able to provide storage and not taking any responsibility for the lost.
12. Samadi Bali has an authority to give the warning and suspend any vendors who could not follow the terms and condition. Especially regarding plastic, non-organic, non eco-friendly and non-vegan or non-vegetarian products.
13. If you are not attending the Pasar Malam up to 3 times in a month, Samadi Bali is allowed to remove you from the Pasar Malam.
